

Call for projects for creative work with children

Objectives

As part of its educational and cultural activities, the children's museum PLOMM wishes to work more closely with the cultural scene and is launching an open call for projects aimed at all artists and artist collectives, across all disciplines.

This call for projects aims to identify artists and artist collectives wishing to collaborate with the children's museum PLOMM to design and oversee co-creation activities with children. The objective is to encourage dialogue between the artist or artist collective and the children and to promote democratic values, while supporting their artistic questioning, expression and creation.

Budget and facilities

The children's museum PLOMM makes its café, creative workshops and exhibitions available depending on the project and the technical and logistical resources (available to us). The maximum budget will be determined based on the selected project (reimbursable upon presentation of original and paid invoices).

Deadline and submission

The application form, accompanied by all the required documents, must be sent by email to create@plomm.lu.

The deadline for registration is midnight on Sunday, 31st of May 2026.

Projects will be reviewed internally, and selected and non-selected applicants will be notified by email.
